In the parable of the ten virgins, Jesus offers a story compatible with the “already/not yet” vision of realized eschatology. The coming of the Bridegroom is most certainly an event for the future, and yet the implications of his coming are urgent for the present. Being prepared now means admittance to the banquet later. Time may be linear, but past, present, and future flow together in cause and effect.

We don’t have to worry about the so-called Rapture, salvation and damnation, heaven and hell, and what’s going to happen after we die. What rightfully concerns us is the choice we’re making in the present hour, the oil we have in our lamps today, and whether we carry the Bridegroom in our hearts or some other fleeting goal. If we’re in Christ today, we’re in Christ for keeps.

PREPARING FOR THE 2005 REUNION BRUNCH

On Sunday, November 20th, our Parish will hold its Annual Parish Reunion Brunch at the elegant “ Harbour Lights Restaurant” after the 12:00 noon bilingual concelebrated solemn Mass. The main celebrant will be the Vicar General of New York Archdiocese, Bishop Robert Brucato, who will also bless the new statues of Blessed John Baptist Scalabrini and St. Frances Cabrini. The statues were carved from olive trees by the Italian Artist Paolo Perotti of Piacenza, and they contain original relics of the two saints.

A Souvenir Commemorative Journal and the Grand Thanksgiving Raffle will be part of this annual sold out event. Did you send in your Ad and Chances? Mark your calendar and secure your seat by making your reservations today!

ST. JOSEPH’S THANKSGIVING FOOD DRIVE 2005

The parish food drive, sponsored by the Holy Name Society and St. Joseph’s School, will begin Tuesday, November 1st and end on Sunday November 20th. Anyone wishing to donate food for the needy, should bring canned food, such as hams, vegetables, soups, etc. to St. Joseph’s Church and place them in the bins that will be located at the back of the church on Sundays. A bin will also be available at the rectory during regular business hours. Even one extra can of food purchased at the grocery store can make a difference! (Please do not donate frozen turkeys, fresh vegetables, or any perishable food since we lack the facility to store it properly. We also cannot accept glass jars, as they will break during delivery.) All food collected will be given to Catholic Charities for distribution to the poor. - - - Thank you for participating in this worthy cause.
